TRAINING METHODOLOGY

At In-Company, we provide a learning experience for participants, which is practical and hands on in an adult learning environment...

Linked to Competencies

All programmes are designed to consider your key competencies ensuring relevance of the training intervention to your organisation's realities

Structured Progression of Content

The progression of all programmes build from foundational concepts to a more advanced in-depth understanding

Interactive Learning

Our approach to the delivery includes highly interactive classroom sessions creating an atmosphere for high engagement

Application to Real World Scenarios

Learning is designed to be practical and goal-oriented, focusing on applying concepts to real challenges, supported by expert coaching to ensure business relevance

MODES OF TRAINING

Our programmes are thoughtfully designed to meet the evolving needs of organisations in both the public and private sectors, grounded in the realities of today's global business environment
